THE THEFT OF 2008

A WARNING FROM ROBERT F. KENNEDY JR.

Bobby Kennedy, Jr. and Greg Palast

Voter suppression is real. It's a crime. And it's happening to YOU.

But there's something that you can do to prevent it. That's what this guide is about. Start with page 19: '7 Easy Steps to Steal Back Your Vote.'

For many years, top investigative reporter Greg Palast and I have been exposing voter suppression.

This is a deliberate strategy to keep minorities from voting, senior citizens from voting, young people from voting in an effort to suppress the vote and maintain their hold on power.

Our concern is not partisan. We need every American to vote: Democrats and Republicans.

You can do all the campaigning you want in a battleground state like Ohio or New Mexico, but if your voters aren't counted, you're going to lose the Presidency—and our democracy.

Pass on this link: www.stealbackyourvote.org. Go to the site. Download copies of this comic book, buy copies in bulk and download STEAL BACK YOUR VOTE: THE MOVIE. Get out the word! There's still time to steal back your vote!

“We’ve marched too long, we’ve worked too hard, and died too young. Don’t let them steal your vote. Read this guide!”

NIGHT OF THE LIVING VOTE-SNATCHERS

BY GREG PALAST

In 2002, George W. Bush signed the Help America Vote Act.

When a Bush tells you he's going to "help" you vote—look out!

The result: in the 2004 presidential election, over three million votes—3,006,080—were cast and not counted. Like, what the !@#!?

That's from the official data from an agency created by George Bush called the "Elections Assistance Commission." When a Bush tells you he's going to "assist" our elections... (well, you get it).

Three MILLION ballots disappeared—pfft!

And not just anyone's ballots. U.S. government experts reported, for example, that a black voter's ballot is 900% more likely than a white voter's ballot to get "lost" in the machine. Bush fired the experts.

FORGET THOSE DIEBOLD MACHINES. THEY'RE GOING TO STEAL THE PRESIDENCY AGAIN. AND THEY'LL RIG THE TOUCH-SCREEN COMPUTER POLLS. BUT THAT'S NOT THE KEY.

WHEN GEORGE BUSH TELLS YOU HE'S GOING TO "HELP" YOU, LOOK OUT. THIS GOES DOUBLE FOR WHEN HE WANTS TO HELP YOU VOTE.

BEFORE THE LAW THAT "HELPS" US VOTE, EVERY VOTER REGISTRATION WAS RECORDED.

NOT ANY MORE. AS OF JANUARY 1, 2006, EACH OF THE 50 SECRETARIES OF STATE BECAME EMPOWERED TO REJECT THOSE VOTER REGISTRATIONS.

AND THEY DID. CALIFORNIA, FOR EXAMPLE, REJECTED 40% OF VOTER REGISTRATIONS DURING 2006.

MOST WERE PEOPLE WITH "UNUSUAL NAMES." UNUSUAL FOR REPUBLICANS, ANYWAY.

1 BUST THE LEAGUE

These numbers should scare the hell out of The Rotten Old Order: There are 7 million unregistered Hispanic citizens—and another 17 million unregistered voters between the ages of 18 and 24.

The Establishment's solution: make registering voters a crime.

The Republican Governor and legislature of Florida, for example, made the League of Women Voters and other voter-drive groups subject to a $5000 fine for every voter form they submitted with a picky, accidental error – or if they came in a couple hours past a deadline.

Twenty states (like Florida, thanks to a GOP legislature) have now put weird restrictions on voter drives.

What's their excuse?

"THE FIRINGS OF THE SEVEN U.S. ATTORNEYS CAME DIRECTLY OUT OF THIS CAMPAIGN BY THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT TO TRY TO GIN UP CASES OF VOTER FRAUD IN ORDER TO CREATE IMPEDIMENTS FOR PEOPLE TO VOTE." –BOBBY KENNEDY

"The Democrats have registered five million illegal aliens," the office of Arizona Republican pol Russell Pearce told me.

only five fraudulent voters a year—in the entire USA! Those are the findings of the top expert in the field, Barnard College professor

THE PAST 4 YEARS HAVE SEEN NEW RULES TO BLOCK VOTER REGISTRATION CAMPAIGNS FOR THE POOR.

5,000,000?? Wow! We asked him to name just five – after all, they have to give their name and address to register. He could name ... zero.

Despite a huge nationwide manhunt, the Bush Administration could find Lorraine Minnite.

Five ne'er-do-wells per year out of 170 million registered voters. But these goofy rules—and all the tricks that follow—are wiping out 5 million innocent voters.

And that's their plan.

2 THE PURGE'N GENERAL

To those millions of would-be new voters: Good Luck.

Beginning in 2006, for the first time in U. S. history, federal law allows, even requires, U.S. Secretaries of State to reject first-time registrants where officials decide they cannot match your identity to government records.

The result has been a virtual voter-registry pogrom. States have rejected forms by the hundreds of thousands. In just the first ten weeks under the new rules, a little-noted codicil within the "Help America Vote Act," Republican Secretary of State Bruce McPherson of California successfully blocked 42% of new registrations out-of-hand, 14,629 voters in Los Angeles County alone.

And who were the rejected?

Typically "Latino, Vietnamese, Chinese, Muslim-surnamed citizens," and, in general, the poor, says Debra Bowen, the Democrat who replaced McPherson. The new Secretary of State told us she is hoping,

(you guessed it!) African-American—just in time for the November "election."

And the Secretary of State of Colorado—the one who disappeared one in five of that swing state's vot-but not certain, she can restore the civil rights of the tens of thousands of rejected voters by November.

Others aren't trying at all.

The GOP Secretary of State of Florida is rejecting 85,000 voters, most of them

ers. George Bush appointed her as Chairman of the US Elections Assistance Commission—to police the whole nation's vote in November. We hear he wanted to call her the "Purge'n General."

IN THE 2008 ELECTION, THE DICE ARE LOADED AGAINST VOTERS WHO ARE HISPANIC, POOR, OR "ITINERANT" (I.E., STUDENTS).

IN JUNE 2006, GEORGIA'S SECRETARY OF STATE CATHY COX [SIC] PURGED 80,000 VOTERS AS CONVICTED FELONS.

PALAST DISCOVERED COMPUTER FILES PURGING BAD-ASS VOTERS LIKE BOBBIE MOORE, CONVICTED IN 2014 (!) OF AN UNKNOWN FUTURE CRIME.

3 SPOILING AMERICA

Odd thing about the 207 voters of precinct 999 in Dona Ana County, New Mexico.

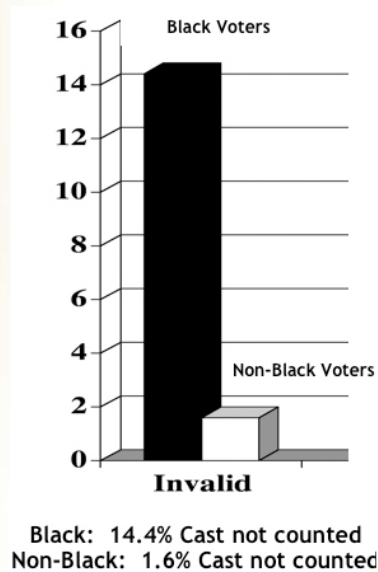

Not a single one could choose between George Bush and John Kerry in 2004.

Or at least that's what their ballots said.

The Secretary of State at the time told me, "Some of those people just can't make up their minds." Dirt-poor Dona Ana is 63% Hispanic and the precinct is made up entirely of overseas voters, mostly

"TOUCH-SCREENS ARE NOTORIOUS. THEY WERE SUPPOSED TO END THE 'SPOILAGE' PROBLEM. BUT WE DISCOVERED THAT HISPANICS VOTING ON COMPUTER SCREENS ARE SIX TIMES AS LIKELY TO LOSE THEIR VOTE THAN IF THEY VOTE ON PAPER BALLOTS. SOMETHING IS VERY ROTTEN." –BOBBY KENNEDY

the Chicano soldiers in Iraq or on duty. The machines say that Hispanic soldiers don't care who becomes their commander-in-chief.

Or maybe, the machines failed to register their votes.

Few Americans realize that in 2004, 1,389,231 ballots were never counted because they were "spoiled." How do ballots spoil? They get left out of the 'fridge? No, they're supposedly unreadable, blank, or just somehow lost in the machines.

Here's an unfun fact: not everyone's vote spoils the same.

The U.S. Civil Rights Commission found that the chances of an African-American voter losing their vote is 900% higher than a white voter. Hispanic votes vanished at a rate 500% higher than Anglo votes.

Something's rotten.

4 PROVISIONAL DEMOCRACY

Uh-oh.

Three million voters showed up at the polls on Election Day 2004 and, instead of getting real ballots, were handed something called a “provisional” ballot, a new creature created by the Help America Vote Act. And guess what? About a third—one million votes—were then thrown away, rejected. In Ohio, the pile in the dumpster would have changed the name of the guy in the White House.

“THE R.N.C. SENDS A LETTER TO THE VOTER AT THE NAVAL AIR STATION, AND IF THIS VOTER HAS BEEN ASSIGNED TO IRAQ OR AFGHANISTAN OR EUROPE, THEN THE LETTER WILL COME BACK TO THE SENDER, WHICH IS THE REPUBLICAN NATIONAL COMMITTEE.”

It's about to happen again. Big time. In the caucus primary of 2008 in New Mexico, one in nine Democrats were handed these bogus bouncing ballots. How come so many? There's a big old challenge machine operation lying in wait to get you.

It started with a man named Tim Griffin, Karl Rove's protégé, who directed a scheme called “caging.” But we caught him. Tim's not the sharpest knife in the drawer, so he addressed his confidential emails to GeorgeWBush.org instead of GeorgeWBush.com. The .org site is owned by John Wooden, a friend of ours, who sent it right to us at BBC-TV. Oops!

In one New Mexico pueblo, hundreds of Native Americans were forced to vote provisionally—but local politicians didn't give them official envelopes. Then these same politicians threw the votes away because they didn't have official envelopes.

The politicians, by the way, were all, uh, Democrats.

“WHEN THIS FELLOW SHOWS UP TO VOTE, THEY'LL SAY: “YOU DON'T LIVE AT THIS ADDRESS ANYMORE, WE'RE CHALLENGING YOUR VOTE. WE CAN'T GIVE YOU A REAL BALLOT, WE'LL INSTEAD GIVE YOU A PROVISIONAL BALLOT. 5 VOTES GONE POSTAL

"We are...beginning to look like we have elections like those run in countries where the guys in charge are, you know, colonels in mirrored glasses.—Karl Rove

Was Karl warning us or boasting?

You're a new voter in Idaho and mail in your absentee ballot. Save the stamp and throw it away—because elections officials will: you have to personally appear with your ID.

Idaho isn't alone with that new voter Block-the-Vote trick. Missouri—did you notarize your ballot? In Kentucky, did you sign it twice? In Colorado, did you use the official envelope?

With partisan officials ready to rip up your ballot over signatures, postage sums, envelope sizes, challenging a circle versus 'X' and other picky-picky gotcha stuff, mailing in your ballot today is a kind of electoral Russian Roulette.

About one in ten absentee ballots get chucked in the dumpster. You're still mailing in your ballot??? Like, hello!

Computer-wary voters went postal in 2004: In some states, mail-in ballot requests were up 500%. The chance that all those votes--over 19 million--were counted? ZILCH!

IT'S 10 PM:

Do You Know Where Your ABSENTEE BALLOT is?

In the 2004 Florida primaries, Palm Beach Elections Supervisor Theresa LePore counted 37,839 absentee votes. But days before, her office told journalist Greg Palast, that only 29,000 ballots had been received! AMAZING!

If a few thousand votes had gone missing, instead of more miraculously appearing, there'd be almost no way to figure it out. LePore was made to do a recount...and acknowledge 6000 phonies.

Meanwhile, in Arapahoe County, Colorado, three times more absentee ballots mailed to Democrats "failed to return" as compared to Republicans-- A fact that couldn't be accounted for by the number of Dems versus Reps using them.

Millions of voters, not trusting elections officials to operate voting machines without tampering, mailed in their ballots to these same officials on the faith that they would be tallied. Who knew that their signature, envelope, address, or pencil lead thickness could be reason enough for their votes to be trashed?

In San Diego, a Democratic write-in candidate for mayor lost by 2,108 votes after 5,551 absentee ballots with her name clearly written in were tossed. The reason? While the voters wrote in her name, they failed to also check the box next to it.

Precinct-by-precinct arithmetic disclosed that absentee voters in strong Kerry precincts were 265% more likely to have their votes tossed than those in Bush precincts. Behind this statistic is (surprise!) Jim Crow Racism. Black voters' absentee ballots were rejected at a rate 316% higher than whites.'

In the US in 2004, from official reports, half a million (526,426) absentee ballots were received but not counted--and those are just the ones they acknowledge receiving!

Democrats, who once excelled at the art of counting Chicago's absentees, even dead ones, are way behind in this new game. It makes you wonder, do they want to win-- or are they just mailing it in?

SIX WAYS THEY'RE TRYING TO STEAL YOUR VOTE

6 NUNS ON THE RUN

So, these ten nuns walk into a polling station and... Oh, you've heard that one?

What you didn't hear is that, besides the Sisters of the Holy Cross who lost their vote because their drivers licenses expired, 144,896 other legal voters were told to scram in this year's primary—all caught attempting to vote without a license. The rejected were, disproportionately, African-American, according to data from the University of Washington.

Apparently, the idea for this racially rancid rule came to Karl Rove while he was buying his Pampers: "If I try to cash a check at a grocery store, I have to show an ID. Why not for voting?"

The answer, Karl, is that for a century, Indiana folks have voted without photo

ID with not a single known case of voter identity theft.

It's true the law nabbed Shirley Preiss, a 98-year-old Democrat whose driver's license expired. Drop that ballot, Shirl, and no one gets hurt.

Santiago Juarez sees some truth in Rove's remarks. We met with Santiago in Espanola, New Mexico, where he was running a registration drive among low-riders, the young Mexican-Americans who cruise the street in hopping, bopping, neon-outlined Chevys. He says, "The same poverty and racism that keeps these kids from getting credit cards keeps them from getting ID." A young Mexicana he escorted to the polls was turned away from her first-ever attempt to vote for failure to produce an ID to the white pollworker's satisfaction, despite Santiago's protest.

"She said, well, something you can't print, and refused to try again. She said, 'They don't want me to vote, anyway.'"

"ONE OUT OF EVERY TEN AMERICANS DON'T HAVE A GOVERNMENT-ISSUED ID BECAUSE THEY DON'T TRAVEL ABROAD, SO THEY DON'T HAVE PASSPORTS, AND THEY DON'T DRIVE A CAR SO THEY DON'T HAVE DRIVERS LICENSES. THE NUMBER RISES TO ONE IN FIVE WHEN YOU'RE DEALING WITH THE AFRICAN-AMERICAN COMMUNITY. AND INDEED, FOR THOSE PEOPLE TO GET A GOVERNMENT-ISSUED ID—IT'S AN OBSTACLE."—BOBBY KENNEDY

THE NEWEST SCAM TO STEAL YOUR VOTE

On May 6, 2008, 10 elderly sisters of the cloth were denied the right to vote in Indiana because they had the wrong kind of I.D....

NICE TRY, HONEY! IT LOOKS LIKE YOU'D BETTER RETURN THAT GET-UP TO THE COSTUME STORE!

Angela H., Allyson M., and who knows how many other college students had their votes denied because their student I.D.'s didn't show their dorm room addresses...

I CAN'T BELIEVE I'M BEING CARDED!

THIS ISN'T EVEN MY FAKE I.D.!

What the HELL is going on? Nothing, says secretary of state Todd Rokita:

REALLY? Journalist, Greg Palast, wondered if it applied the same if you happened to be voting while black...

So Palast crunched the numbers: African-Americans make up 9% of Indiana's electorate (that comes to approx. 400,000 voters).

In a state that Hillary won by only 14,000 votes, 100,000 African-Americans, the young, the old, and those who live in convents - that adds up to a lot of missing I.D. cards - and STOLEN VOTES!

According to a Univ. of Washington study, 28% of those don't carry the I.D. that's required.

If that's not enough, Georgia, Louisiana, Missouri, and Arizona have jumped on the voter I.D. bandwagon, supposedly to stop "vote fraud."

That's what cost U.S. Attorneys their jobs - they discovered that vote fraud only existed in Karl Rove's imagination.

Martin Luther King walked 56 miles from Selma to Montgomery for the right to vote. In the Supreme Court, Justice Scalia remarked that the burden of a 17-mile walk to the voter I.D. office was no different for a 98-year-old nun than for a chauffeur-driven Republican.

So, did Indiana go to all the trouble to fix a primary for Hillary? No. But as a dry run, it proved that voter I.D. should work just as planned in November.

1 DON'T DON'T DON'T MAIL IN YOUR BALLOT—UNLESS...

For those of you who mailed in your ballot, please tell me, what happened to it? You don't know, do you? I can tell you that officially, three-fourths of a million absentee ballots were never counted last time, on the weakest of technical excuses. And you won't even know it. Furthermore, tens of thousands of ballots are not mailed out to voters in time to return them - in which case you're out of luck. Most states won't let you vote in-precinct once you've applied to vote absentee. Every time I hear of a voter going "absentee" to avoid computer screens, I want to "go postal" myself.

But for gosh sakes—don't throw out your ballot if you have a mail-in. Either mail it in, making sure to include ID if required (you first-time voters) or, better, WALK it into your county clerk's office.

2 VOTE EARLY...VERY EARLY

Every state now lets voters cast ballots in designated polling stations and at county offices in the weeks before Election Day. Do it. Don't wait until Election Day to find out you have the wrong ID, your registration's "inactive," or you're on a challenge list. By Election Day, there's little to do but hold up the line.

3 REGISTER AND REGISTER AND REGISTER

Think you're registered to vote? Think again. With all this purg'n going on, you could be x'd out and you won't know it. Check online at www.votersunite.org/info/RegInfo.asp. Then register your girlfriend, your wife, your mailman and your mommy. Contact the Rainbow PUSH Coalition, Rock the Vote, and your local party organization, and commit to a couple of days of door-to-door registration, especially in minority neighborhoods or at social service agency offices. And if you've served the time, you can sign: in almost every state, ex-cons can vote.

VOTE UNCONDITIONALLY, NOT PROVISIONALLY

In 2008, they'll be handing out provisional ballots like candy, especially to Hispanic voters. If your right to vote is challenged, don't accept a provisional ballot that will likely not get counted no matter what the sweet little lady at the table tells you. She won't decide; partisan sharks will. Demand adjudication from poll judges on the spot; demand a call to the supervisor of elections; or return with acceptable ID if possible. And be a champ: defend the rights of others.

If you've taken Step 1 above and voted early, you have Election Day free to be a poll watcher. Run into trouble—you've been caged or purged or challenged—call Election Protection at 1-(866) OUR-VOTE. Then challenge the challengers, the weird guys with Blackberrys containing lists of "suspect" voters. Be firm, but no biting.

OCCUPY OHIO, INVADE NEVADA

The revolution will not be podcast. Let go of that mouse, get out of your PJs and take the resistance door-to-door—to register the vote, to canvass the voters, to get out the vote. Donate time to your union (if you're not in a union, why not?) or to the troublemakers I've already listed here and on our site. This may seem a stupendously unoriginal suggestion, but I know of no other method more effective for confronting the armed and dangerous junta that has seized the White House.

DATE A VOTER

Voting, like bowling and love, should never be done alone. As our sponsor, the Rev. Jesse Jackson, says, make a date to 'Arrive with Five.' And keep this comic book in your holster - with our 800 numbers and your photo ID in your hand. And Bobby, make sure your ID says, "Robert Kennedy JUNIOR" or your vote is toast.

MAKE THE DEMOCRACY DEMAND: NO VOTE LEFT BEHIND!

I have this crazy fantasy in my head. In it, an election is stolen and the guy who's wrongly declared the loser stands up in front of the White House and says three magic words: "Count the votes." You can have all the paper ballots in the world, but if you don't demand to look at them, publicly, in a recount, you might as well mark them with invisible ink.

Democracy requires vigilance The Day After. That's when you check in at www.stealbackyourvote.org one more time.

PALAST INVESTIGATIVE FUND

“Greg Palast, an American investigator better known beyond our borders, through BBC Television’s ‘Newsnight,’ is exactly what a journalist is supposed to be—a truth hound, doggedly independent, undaunted by power. His stories bite. They’re so relevant they threaten to alter history—simply by letting the hoodwinked public in on the game while it’s happening, which is precisely the role America’s mainstream media have abdicated.” —Chicago Tribune

It’s the Palast investigative team that busted the story of the how Katherine Harris knocked tens of thousands of African-Americans off the voter rolls calling them felons—when their only crime was VWB: Voting While Black.

It’s the Palast team that, for BBC Television, exposed the confidential plans for the seizure of Iraq’s oil fields. That stripped the bark off Enron for The Guardian while US reporters were licking Ken Lay’s loafers.

“The top investigative journalist in the United States is persona non grata in his own country’s media.” —Asia Times

Reporting from arctic oil fields to coups brewing on the Orinoco, “Greg Palast is Jack Kerouac meets Seymour Hersh. Insightful, entertaining and does his homework.” —BuzzFlash

But Greg Palast doesn’t do his homework alone. A team of fact-hungry, sleep-deprived, badly-paid sleuths, the Investigative Team, operating on five continents, helps Palast dig the dirt they don’t want you to see. It’s independent journalism in the raw—beholden to no media mogul. YOU are the mogul. Support the Palast Investigative Fund by visiting PalastInvestigativeFund.org, 64 Second Avenue, New York NY 10003, a 501c3 educational foundation.

THE PEOPLE BEHIND STEAL BACK YOUR VOTE

GREG PALAST Katherine Harris calls Greg Palast “twisted and manic.” Author of the New York Times bestsellers The Best Democracy Money Can Buy and Armed Madhouse (“Up there with Woodward and Bernstein.”—Guardian.) Catch his reports on BBC Television’s Newsnight, in Rolling Stone, Harper’s and Yellow Rat Bastard. Palast wears a hat. Subscribe to Palast’s reports and watch the BBC-TV reports at www.GregPalast.com.

In 2006, ROBERT F. KENNEDY JR., professor of law at Pace University, sued the pants off the Diebold Corporation over its vote-snatching ballot boxes. Co-host of Air America Radio’s Ring of Fire with Mike Papantonio, Kennedy is Chief Prosecuting Attorney for environmental warrior posse Riverkeeper; Co-Director of the Pace Environmental Litigation Clinic, writes for Rolling Stone, Vanity Fair and is author of a book series for young adults, American Heroes. Is that cool, or what? Listen up at www.ringoffireradio.com.

TED RALL is a three time Pulitzer finalist whose work appears in more than 140 publications across the country. Rall is one of The New York Times most reprinted cartoonists, previously he has worked for Time and Fortune magazines, and is the author of Silk Road to Ruin. (www.TedRall.com)

LLOYD DANGLE’s cartoons and illustrations have appeared in over 100 magazines and newspapers of every type from the crusty corporate mainstream to the bleeding, subcommercial edge. Lloyd’s work has been featured in publications including Cosmo, Entertainment Weekly, Mother Jones, The Nation, The New York Times, Time Magazine. (www.TroubleTown.com)

LUKAS KETNER has become a favorite of alternative weeklies and recently has garnered massive internet buzz for his oo-la-la portrait of Barack Obama for the cover of the Williamette Weekly. <http://lukas-ketner.blogspot.com/>
